

Roger S Smith Undergraduate Research Award

Below is a listing of past student recipients, their supervising faculty member(s), and the project name.

2007

Carley Bowman, Elementary Education
Rob Klassen, Educational Psychology
Motivation Beliefs in Cross-Cultural Settings

Tarra Chalupka, Secondary Education
Ingrid Johnston, Secondary Education
Reflections on a Three Year Collaborative Action Research Project to Address Diversity in Teacher Education

Michael Florizone, Secondary Education
Diane Conrad, Secondary Education The Transformative Potential of Drama in the Education of Incarcerated Youth

Christina Hinger, Elementary Education
Linda Phillips, Elementary Education
The Design and Development of an Early Language and Literacy Screening Test

Shelane Jorgenson, Secondary Education
Jorge Sousa, Educational Policy Studies
Evaluation of a Local Community-based Intervention Program

Drew McDowell, Elementary Education
Joyce Bainbridge, Elementary Education
Research Past, Present and Future in the Faculty of Education

Jill Morrissey, Secondary Education
Heidi Julien, Library & Information Studies
How High School Students Evaluate Scientific Information: A basis for information literacy skills development

Joshua Pate, Elementary Education
Rauno Parrila, Educational Psychology
Reading Development and Remediation

Sarah Speakman, Elementary Education
Christina Rinaldi, Educational Psychology
Mutuality in Parent-Child Interactions: The emergency of emotion regulation strategies and social competence in early childhood

Christen Tremblay, Secondary Education
Steve Norris, Educational Policy Studies
High School Classroom Assessment for Scientific Reasoning and Understanding

Ruth Xing, Secondary Education
Olenka Bilash, Secondary Education
The Impact of Hokkaido Teachers of English Program (HTEP) on Teaching English in Hokkaido