Course Description and Objectives:

ARAB 113 X01 is intended for “heritage” students who may have limited familiarity with the spoken language, but who cannot read or write, or who have limited background in grammar and other key concepts about Modern Standard Arabic (MSA). Students who can read and write MSA and have a fair knowledge of grammar are encouraged to write a placement test so that they can register in ARAB 114 or a higher level.

Arab 113 aims at building basic skills in MSA, the language read and understood by educated Arabs from the Arabian Peninsula to Morocco. During this term, we will cover the introductory book, Alif Baa (including the Arabic alphabet, diacritical marks, and speech sounds), and five lessons in al-Kitaab fii Ta`alum al`Arabiyya: A Textbook for Beginning Arabic, Part One. These lessons aim to create a bridge between classroom and real-life situations. Each lesson includes vocabulary, grammar, drills, and video examples of conversational situations. The course teaches you simple conversation skills, which will help you to interact with Arabic speakers, and help you to teach yourself Arabic beyond the scope of the classroom.

By the end of the semester, students should be able to master knowledge of the Arabic alphabet, different types of structural sentences, reading simple MSA texts, advertisements, and news items.

In addition, students should be able to:

- Introduce themselves and communicate where they are from, where they live, what are they studying, and what are their hobbies, and ask their peers questions to obtain reciprocal information.
- Describe family members and friends, talk about seasons and studies, provide some basic information about Arab countries, and be able to write a simple paragraph about one of the basic topics studied.

Course Format: The objectives of this course will be achieved from a combination of in-class conversations, group activities, formal lectures, assigned readings, audiovisual materials, and homework. There will be five hours of instruction per week, organized by systematic instruction and drills in reading, writing, listening, and speaking.

Texts:

1. Kristen Brustad, et al. Alif Baa. Georgetown University Press, 3rd Edition, 2010.
2. Kristen Brustad, et al. al-Kitaab fii Ta`alum al`Arabiyya: A Textbook for Beginning Arabic, Part One. Georgetown University Press, 3rd Edition, 2011.
3. Additional handouts will be distributed from time to time to provide additional examples and explanations of textbook materials.

Explanatory Notes on Assignments:

- Homework is given each class and is due every Thursday.
- Homework is marked according to completion and self-correction of assigned drills, not the number of mistakes made.
- It is the student’s responsibility to recover missed assignments in case of absence.
- An absence is not an excuse for not being tested on what you have missed.
- Excused absence does not mean an automatic excused “homework extension”: if the absence is on a Thursday (day of h.w. submission) the student should submit the h.w. to the instructor by e-mail. before the following Monday.
- Participation in class includes taking part in class/group activities and discussions, answering the instructor’s questions, preparing for the assigned class material prior to the lesson (watching the DVD, reading vocabulary, etc.), and exhibiting a positive attitude in class with respect to material, time, peers, instructor.
- We will review class material prior to each quiz/test/exam.
- Class skit: each student will prepare and deliver a 4-5 minute presentation (working in groups TBA in class) based on proposed topics (discussed in class in advance). While the presentation is a group project, grades will be given individually (a grading rubric will be provided on eClass prior to the presentations).
- Oral quiz: given individually or in pairs (details about quiz topics will be provided in advance).
- Grading of the oral component is based on the student’s level in comprehension, self-expression in MSA, use of formal structures, and avoiding colloquial language.
- Movie review: An Arab film will be shown in class, November 19. Students should attend and submit a one-page review of the film (in English) by November 26.
- Note: additional short written or oral tests/quizzes may be conducted in class (with or without previous notice) for evaluation/assessment purpose and may count towards class activities.

Required Notes:

Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:

“The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.”

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that the use of on-line translation to complete assignments constitutes a form of cheating as the student’s own understanding and work is therefore not reflected. Also, students in language courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of cheating that violates the Code of Student Behaviour.

Learning and Working Environment:

The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students; faculty and staff are able to study and work in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern;
- or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Sexual Violence Policy:

It is the policy of the University of Alberta that sexual violence committed by any member of the University community is prohibited and constitutes misconduct. Resources and more information can be found at <https://www.ualberta.ca/campus-life/sexual-violence>

Territorial Statement:

“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.”

Recording of Lectures:

Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:

Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour.

In this course, “attendance and participation” means attending each class, from the beginning to the end, paying attention to the instructor, and participating fully in all class activities.

Regular attendance is mandatory; unexcused absences and lateness will negatively impact your grade. If absence is due to severe illness or any other considerable reason, student should inform the instructor before the beginning of class (even by e-mail). Unexcused Tardiness or leaving the class early is counted as attending only half of the class. No excuse will be accepted if the instructor is not informed before class, unless in case of emergency. The instructor may accept reasonable excuse for absence with no penalty twice throughout the course, otherwise frequent excused absences (with no emergency reasons) will impact your grade.

In case of unexcused and unjustified absence from test and/or exam, the instructor may not accept to rescheduling.

Policy for Late Assignments:

- Students who consult in advance with an instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension just two times throughout the course with no penalty.
- Otherwise, all assignments should be handed in on the stated deadline. Any assignment not handed-in in time, unexcused late assignments will not be given any marks. No third excuse will be granted.
- Late excuses will not be accepted for any reason.

Grading:

Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The final letter grade will be based on "a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class" (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student's level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (<https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/>). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:

MLCS Undergraduate Grading Scale

Descriptor	Letter Grade	Grade Point Value	%
