Components of Course Grade (SEE “EXPLANATORY NOTES”):

Component	Value	Due dates
Compositions	20% (2 compositions x 10% each)	Oct. 8, Nov. 17
Homework	5%	ongoing
Unit tests	50% (5 tests x 10% each)	Sept. 17, Oct. 1, Oct. 20, Nov. 3, Nov. 26
End-of-term test	20%	Dec. 7
Participation and attendance	5%	ongoing

Explanatory Notes on Assignments and Tests:

Compositions: You will be asked to write two, 500-word compositions on topics provided by the instructor. You will have approximately 10 days to prepare the compositions at home. Each assignment must be typed, double-spaced, single-sided, or it will not be accepted and a grade of zero will be assigned. Indicate the number of words at the end of each assignment.

Homework: Throughout the term, you will be given short homework assignments to complete, as deemed appropriate by the instructor. These assignments will be ungraded, but you will receive credit for having completed the assignment. The mark for this component will be the number of assignments you completed (e.g. 18 of 20 assignments completed = 4.5/5). Where applicable, the answers will be provided for self-correction. For assignments where no answer key is possible, the instructor will give you feedback, but no mark will be assigned.

You are responsible for finding out whether or not an assignment has been given; not knowing because you were not in class is not an acceptable excuse, as regular attendance is expected, and you are also expected to check eClass regularly. If you miss an assignment due to an excusable absence, you can request an extension from the instructor. If you do not complete the assignment by the new due date, no credit will be given. For an unexcusable absence, or if you simply forgot, you will not receive credit for the assignment.

Unit tests: A test will be given at the end of each unit. No dictionary or other material or electronic devices will be permitted during the test.

End-of-term test: The end-of-term test will cover the grammar topics studied in the course, plus a composition on topics already discussed throughout the course. No dictionary or other material or electronic devices will be permitted during the test. There is no final exam for this course.

Participation and attendance: Regular daily attendance and active participation in class are essential for optimal performance in a language course. This is also true for the remote environment for this fall term. For Spanish 300, this means we will meet Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays via Zoom video conferencing.

During the video conferencing sessions, you are expected to participate just like in a regular classroom, e.g. interact with your classmates and the instructor in Spanish with a microphone so that everyone can hear you and a camera turned on (because nobody wants to talk to a black screen). In-class participation includes not only evidence of individual preparation and attention, but also contributing to group work. You are not expected to speak in perfect, fluent Spanish, but you are expected to put in your best effort and take advantage of every possible opportunity to practice speaking Spanish.

You are also expected to attend class regularly and punctually. Attendance will be recorded on a daily basis. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to make up work and learn the missed material. Students are encouraged to communicate with other students (or with the instructor by email or in office hours) to keep up with missed classes. Do not expect your instructor to go over material in class again because you were absent. Please be aware that unexcused absences will negatively impact your participation grade (see notes on attendance below). The instructor expects students to have read and completed the relevant materials before coming to class.

Note: If persistent technological problems with internet connections arise during the term, the instructor may decide (in consultation with the coordinator) that all students will be evaluated without the participation component. Thus, students will not have to turn their camera on at all times.

REQUIRED NOTES:

Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:

The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Language and Translation Courses:

Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that the use of on-line translation to complete assignments constitutes a form of cheating as the student's own understanding and work is therefore not reflected. Also, students in language courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of cheating that violates the Code of Student Behaviour.

Learning and Working Environment:

The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students; faculty and staff are able to study and work in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy has been or is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

It is the policy of the University of Alberta that sexual violence committed by any member of the University community is prohibited and constitutes misconduct. Resources and more information can be found at <https://www.ualberta.ca/campus-life/sexual-violence>

Territorial Statement:

“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.” (from the beginning of the Calendar).

Recording of Lectures:

Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:

Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour.

In this course, participation is an essential component; therefore, students are expected to attend class daily, be prepared to interact in Spanish in a variety of situations, keep up with the material, complete and hand in assigned homework, and take exams on the scheduled date.

a. Excused absences are not automatic; therefore, in cases of potentially excusable absences (emergency conditions, incapacitating illness, religious convictions or legitimate University-related business), students may apply for an excused absence for missed classes, term work, or exams. Please note:

- For an absence to be considered excused, instructors will request adequate documentation to substantiate the reason for the absence (i.e. in the form of a “Medical Declaration Form for Students” <https://uofa.ualberta.ca/arts/-/media/arts/student-services/documents/medicaldeclarationformforstudents.pdf>). Please, note that a “Statutory Declaration” submitted at the end of term covering multiple absences during the term will not be accepted.
- A student must inform the instructor within two working days following the class which was missed, or as soon as the student is able, having regard to the circumstances underlying the absence.
- For missed exams or term work, no extension will be given after this deadline has elapsed and a grade of ZERO will be assigned.

- For absence from a final exam, students may apply for a deferred exam: <https://calendar.ualberta.ca/content.php?catoid=33&navoid=9816&hl=%22Absence+from+Final+Exams%22&returnto=search#attendance>. Deferred examinations cannot be granted by instructors.
- For an excused absence where the cause is religious belief, a student must contact the instructor(s) within two weeks of the start of Fall or Winter classes; and within three days of the start of Spring or Summer classes.
- No request for make-up for missed work or exams will be considered without proper documentation.
- Providing any kind of document(s) does not imply an automatic approval; it will be at the discretion of the instructor to accept or decline a document and/or grant the student's request for an excused absence.
- For further explanation regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult the Attendance section of University Calendar.

b. Unexcused absences. Each student is allowed three unexcused absences for the entire term. This does not include days on which assignments are due or when an exam or test is given. For any unexcused absence beyond the allotted three, one point out of the five total points will be deducted from the student's participation and attendance grade. In addition, a grade of ZERO will be given for any exams, quizzes, or assignments that are not handed in or completed as a result of an unexcused absence.

Policy for Late Assignments and Tests:

All assignments are due at the beginning of the scheduled class time (submission of online eClass assignments will no longer be possible after that time). Students who consult in advance with an instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted one extension for that assignment. In cases of medical or other emergency, the student is responsible for notifying the instructor by email within two days. The instructor has the final decision on whether to grant an extension or to record a mark of zero. Assignments that are late for unexcusable reasons will not be accepted.

Disclaimer:

Any typographical errors in this syllabus are subject to change and will be announced in class and posted on eClass. The date of the final examination is set by the Registrar and takes precedence over the final examination date reported in this syllabus.

Grading:

Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The final letter grade will be based on "a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class" (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student's level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (<https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/>). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:

Descriptor	Letter Grade	Grade Point Value	%
Excellent. A+, A or A- is earned by work which is superior in content and form and demonstrates an exceptional grasp of the subject matter. The grade of A+ designates work that far exceeds course expectations. Grades in the A range are normally achieved by a small number of students.	A+	4.0	97-100
	A	4.0	93-96
	A-	3.7	90-92
Good. B+, B or B- is earned by work that demonstrates a thorough comprehension of the course material and a good command of relevant skills. Grades in the B range are normally achieved by the largest number of students.	B+	3.3	87-89
	B	3.0	83-86
	B-	2.7	80-82
Satisfactory. C+, C or C- is earned by work that demonstrates an adequate grasp of the course material and relevant skills. Grades in the C range designate work that has met the basic requirements of the course.	C+	2.3	77-79
	C	2.0	73-76
	C-	1.7	70-72
Poor/Minimal Pass. D+ or D is earned by work that demonstrates minimal familiarity with the course material. Grades in the D range generally indicate insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the subject matter.	D+	1.3	65-69
	D	1.0	60-64
Failure.	F	0.0	0-59
