Course Description, Objectives and Expected Learning Outcomes:

This class is for students with no or very limited background in Ukrainian. The course emphasizes oral communication while developing basic listening, reading and writing skills. The focus is on everyday communication and daily practices. Cultural information is integrated throughout the course materials.

By the end of the semester, upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- (a) Communicate with others: introduce themselves and meet others; talk where they are from, where they live, what courses they are taking, what do they like to do; discuss daily routines, weekend plans, holidays, appearance, and food
- (b) Be able to ask simple questions and engage in simple conversations
- (c) Be able to produce simple greetings, ask for and give directions, describe appearance; order food in a restaurant, buy groceries, make arrangements with friends over the phone; write a greeting card
- (d) Be able to write simple texts in Ukrainian (hopefully in ‘cursive’ 😊)
- (e) Be able to understand simple audio and video texts (such as TV ads).

Course Format: The objectives of this course will be learned from a combination of in-class (live Zoom meetings three times per week) and online teaching and learning via podorozhiva.com platform. The online sessions on podorozhiva.com students complete independently.

Explanatory Notes on Assignments:

IN CLASS AND ONLINE COMPONENTS: Please note that each chapter (= ‘trip’) of the textbook consists of 6 mini-lessons: 3 face-to-face [F2F] ‘meetings’ to be completed in class during regularly scheduled meetings and 3 ‘stations’ to be completed independently online [students usually complete these in 15-25 min, but take as much time as you need-more practice=better results 😊]

One-week course organization: general structure
(an example for Module 1)

IMPORTANT: The appropriate online component needs to be completed before the respective in-class meeting!!!

Remarks to the Student and Further Details about the Course:

Our policy in UKR 111-112 is to treat each student as an individual. Our sections are fairly small. This allows you to interact with peers and instructors on a more frequent basis, to acquire language skills in a more personalized atmosphere, and thus to enhance your performance. This course focuses on the communication of practical skills at every step. The lessons are organized around thematic units that allow you to function in Ukrainian. (For this reason, Ukrainian rules of etiquette will prevail in the classroom; students and instructors will reciprocally address each other using the respectful Vy).

Other activities will include verbal games, viewing of video news reports and television programs from Ukraine, listening to popular music from Ukraine, and other engaging texts.

Required Notes:

Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:

The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

LANGUAGE AND TRANSLATION COURSES:

Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that the use of on-line translation to complete assignments constitutes a form of cheating as the student's own understanding and work is therefore not reflected. Also, students in language courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of cheating that violates the Code of Student Behaviour.

Learning and Working Environment:

The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students, faculty and staff are able to work and study in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Sexual Violence Policy:

It is the policy of the University of Alberta that sexual violence committed by any member of the University community is prohibited and constitutes misconduct. Resources and more information can be found at Sexual Violence Information

Territorial Statement:

“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.” (from the beginning of the Calendar).

Recording of Lectures:

Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:

Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour.

In this course, attendance will be taken at every class meeting. Unexcused absences will adversely affect the student’s grade. Tardiness is counted as an unexcused absence.

Note: Every class each student will be assigned a grade (0%-100%) for class participation and preparation for class. The online components are considered ‘course attendance and participation’ and need to be completed regularly (if all completed, students receive 100%, if missed 0%). Written homework will be graded according to the same scale.

Policy for Late Assignments:

Students who consult in advance with an instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension just one time throughout the course with no penalty. However, if a second excuse will be granted for late assignments, half of the mark assigned for this particular work will be deducted. Otherwise, all assignments should be handed in on the stated deadline. Any assignment not handed-in in time or unexcused late assignments will not be given any marks. Late excuses will not be accepted for any reason.

Disclaimer:

Any typographical errors in this syllabus are subject to change and will be announced in class and posted on eClass. The date of the final examination is set by the Registrar and takes precedence over the final examination date reported in this syllabus.

Office of the Student Ombuds:

The Office of the Student Ombuds offers confidential interviews, advice and support to students facing academic, discipline, interpersonal and financial difficulties.

Grading:

Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The final letter grade will be based on "a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class" (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student's level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (<https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/>). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:

“MLCS Undergraduate Grading Scale”

Descriptor	Letter Grade	Grade Point Value	%
Excellent. A+, A or A- is earned by work which is superior in content and form and demonstrates an exceptional grasp of the subject matter. The grade of A+ designates work that far exceeds course expectations. Grades in the A range are normally achieved by a small number of students.	A+	4.0	97-100
	A	4.0	93-96
	A-	3.7	90-92

Good. B+, B or B- is earned by work that demonstrates a thorough comprehension of the course material and a good command of relevant skills. Grades in the B range are normally achieved by the largest number of students.	B+	3.3	87-89
	B	3.0	83-86
	B-	2.7	80-82
Satisfactory. C+, C or C- is earned by work that demonstrates an adequate grasp of the course material and relevant skills. Grades in the C range designate work that has met the basic requirements of the course.	C+	2.3	77-79
	C	2.0	73-76
	C-	1.7	70-72
Poor/Minimal Pass. D+ or D is earned by work that demonstrates minimal familiarity with the course material. Grades in the D range generally indicate insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the subject matter.	D+	1.3	65-69
	D	1.0	60-64
Failure.	F	0.0	0-59

N.B. Please remember that 20% of the final grade depends on attendance, preparation and active participation in class and online. This margin is not an available option in heavily enrolled courses.

Consultations

Students are encouraged to consult with the instructor about any questions or problems with the course. Do not hesitate to ask your instructor for help as soon as there is a problem.
